

Kayaking & trekking on the Russian Arctic with Pavel Ageychenko — Detailed description

Trip Length: 7 Group: 3-6 Departure: Fixed Period: December - January

Trip overview

We get burned up with a great idea to combine a visit to the two largest massifs of the Kola Peninsula - Khibiny and Lovozero. The key to our solution became Lake Umbozero, translated from the Sami language as a closed lake or surrounded by mountains. On both sides of the lake, there are immense mountain ranges of incredible beauty, and their heart is the picturesque Umbozero Lake. So, we have a special plan for you!

What about crossing the deepest lake of the Kola Peninsula from north to south by kayaks. It's a perfect spot for kayaking, as it's surrounded by breath-taking mountains and lake scenery. On the west side, you can see the spectacular Lovozero massif with its tiny bays and pebble beaches, on the east side, we admire the oldest mountains Khibiny. Apart kayaking, we offer exciting trekking to some unique sights and place of power.

We will look into the secluded corners of the mountain ranges and follow along the absolutely wild paths of the Kola Peninsula. The entire route is far from civilization: just you and the wilderness. And the combination of the water-hiking route is ideal for outdoor holiday!

In summer 2021 the trip will be guided by Pavel Ageychenko, the founder of BaikalNature, who will pass on to you his virus of the passion for the great outdoors of Russia!

Visa

You need a tourist visa to travel to Russia. It can be issued for a maximum period of 30 days. Your passport has to be valid for at least six months after the expiry date of your visa and to have at least two blank pages.

BaikalNature offers visa support and has created "BaikalNature letter of invitation" package. If you buy a BaikalNature tour, this package is absolutely free; when you buy any other BaikalNature service, you will have to pay for this package.

For more information please contact your nearest Russian Embassy or Visa Application Center.

Money

The Russian currency is ruble. In all cities and many large villages of Russia, you can easily withdraw rubles, using a Visa or MasterCard, from ATMs, located in banks, department stores or hotel lobbies, some of them are open 24 hours a day. If you have euros or dollars with you, exchange offices will allow you to change them easily in the cities, seldom in the countryside. However, it can be difficult to exchange traveler's checks, even in cities.

Tipping

All persons who compose the BaikalNature travel team (guides, drivers, cooks, etc.) are paid a decent wage for their services and do not expect any tips from you. So you have no obligation to leave anything. If you really want to express your satisfaction by leaving a gratuity, and if it is in foreign currency, be aware that torn or glued coins and banknotes cannot be exchanged. Anyway, thank you for your tips, left at your discretion in envelopes.
