

Borodino: Where Napoleon Won and Lost — Detailed description

Trip Length: Group: 6-12 Departure: Fixed Period: December - January

Trip overview

During this week-end, we offer you to discover places where took place one of the most impressive, symbolic and bloodiest battle of the French Invasion of Russia in 1812: the battle of Borodino, which allowed the capture of empty and ruined Moscow by Napoleon so-called "Grande Armée". The battle of Borodino weakened the French Army, and announced their future long retreat and numerous losses.

Napoleon himself, wrote the following report about the battle of Borodino: "Of the fifty battles I have fought, the most terrible was that before Moscow. The French showed themselves to be worthy victors, and the Russians can rightly call themselves invincible".

The battle of Borodino is a founding event of Russian patriotism.

In the evening, transfer from Moscow to our accommodation in Mozhaysk surroundings.

On the following day, we are going to visit Borodino's battlefield and main landmarks.

Then, we will discover Mozhaysk, pretty tiny city where Napoleon established his headquarter after Russian retreat. In the afternoon, excursion to Staroye Selo and free time on the shores of the "Sea of Mozhaysk".

Highlights

- Enjoy nature and relax on the shores of "Mozhaysk sea"
- A place and events which inspired Tolstoy's masterpiece "War and Peace"
- Discover one of Napoleonic wars major battlefields
- Escape the hustle and bustle of the city

Meals

Picnic for lunch and hot meal served at your accommodation in the evening.

If you are a vegetarian or have any particular preferences, please let us know, so we could adapt the menu.

Visa

You need a tourist visa to travel to Russia. It can be issued for a maximum period of 30 days. Your passport has to be valid for at least six months after the expiry date of your visa and to have at least two blank pages.

BaikalNature offers visa support and has created "BaikalNature letter of invitation" package. If you buy a BaikalNature tour, this package is absolutely free; when you buy any other BaikalNature service, you will have to pay for this package.

For questions regarding obtaining an electronic visa, please contact your tour manager.

Money

The Russian currency is ruble. The cost of travel and other services is always fixed in rubles. Please note that cards from foreign banks do not work in Russia at the moment. Tourists can obtain a bank card from a Russian bank in advance or travel with cash. If you have euros or dollars with you, exchange offices will allow you to change them easily in the cities. It is also worth noting that the exchange rate at airports is usually not the most favorable. It is better to exchange in big cities (you can check the current exchange rate online). Important! Only new banknotes without defects or any traces are accepted for exchange.

Tipping

All persons who compose the BaikalNature travel team (guides, drivers, cooks, etc.) are paid a decent wage for their services and do not
