The River Bolshaya is accessible, full of fish and, most of all, holds a treasure. A trophy fish that every angler dreams to reel: the Chinook Salmon, also called King Salmon. It can be more than 180 centimeters long (6 feet) and weigh about 40 kilograms (90 pounds).

Whether you are a beginner or an advanced angler, this fishing trip will suit you well. Our seasoned guides will help you take to this activity that tends to be a bit of a gamble at times. And if you wish to try your hand at a professional level, a contest for the best angler – or for the luckiest! – will be hold. But you can be sure of one thing – this fishing trip won't let anybody down without a catch!

Throughout this trip, you'll experience all the aspects of Russian fishing. In the evening you'll rest in the wooden houses of the fishing village and relax in Russian banyas.

Meals

If you are a vegetarian or have any particular preferences, please let us know, so we could adapt the menu.

Visa

You need a tourist visa to travel to Russia. It can be issued for a maximum period of 30 days. Your passport has to be valid for at least six months after the expiry date of your visa and to have at least two blank pages.

BaikalNature offers visa support and has created "BaikalNature letter of invitation" package. If you buy a BaikalNature tour, this package is absolutely free; when you buy any other BaikalNature service, you will have to pay for this package.

For questions regarding obtaining an electronic visa, please contact your tour manager.

Money

The Russian currency is ruble. The cost of travel and other services is always fixed in rubles. Please note that cards from foreign banks do not work in Russia at the moment. Tourists can obtain a bank card from a Russian bank in advance or travel with cash. If you have euros or dollars with you, exchange offices will allow you to change them easily in the cities. It is also worth noting that the exchange rate at airports is usually not the most favorable. It is better to exchange in big cities (you can check the current exchange rate online). Important! Only new banknotes without defects or any traces are accepted for exchange.

Tipping

All persons who compose the BaikalNature travel team (guides, drivers, cooks, etc.) are paid a decent wage for their services and do not expect any tips from you. So you have no obligation to leave anything. If you really want to express your satisfaction by leaving a gratuity, and if it is in foreign currency, be aware that torn or glued coins and banknotes cannot be exchanged. Anyway, thank you for your tips, left at your discretion in envelopes.
