

Pancake Festival On Lake Baikal — Detailed description

Trip Length: Group: 2-10 Departure: Fixed Period: December - January

Trip overview

The Pancake Week or Maslenitsa in Russia is a very fun holiday that is celebrated to see severe winter off and to honour spring bringing the awakening of nature and warm sun. For Russians spring was always a symbol of the beginning of a new life and the end of frosts. Every day of the Pancake Week has its own name - Gourmand, Revelry, Mother-in-Law Night etc. In the end of the week everyone meets in the main city square to put a straw effigy representing Winter to the flames of a bonfire.

The Maslenitsa week is the last week before the Great Lent when it is still allowed to eat butter, milk, meat, and fish. According to Orthodox church, the week is also called Cheesefare Week. In this time people usually prepared yellow, round and hot pancakes symbolizing the sun. The latter was always respected as it gives life and strength to all living beings. They believe that when eating a pancake one shares the warmth and the power of the sun.

This journey offers you to celebrate Maslenitsa in the very north of Lake Baikal in Siberia, to learn old Russian customs and taste traditional pancakes. Also you will enjoy the hot springs in the north of the Baikal, try true Russian banya, and visit the factory producing traditional felt boots.

Ideal tour for a family or friends group as well as for solo travellers to get plunged in a warm atmosphere of Siberian traditions!

Checklist & Equipment

You will need in Russia in winter:

- to protect yourself from the cold weather;
- to protect yourself from the wind;
- to protect your feet from moisture;
- to protect yourself from the sun's reflection from ice and snow.

Allow the system of "three layers":

- The first layer, called "second skin", determines the performance of the other two layers. It will transport sweat to the next layer and dry quickly to avoid cooling after exercise. Therefore forget the cotton retains moisture in the skin and choose underwear in synthetic fabrics.
- The second layer must keep the heat of the body as long as possible. Warm synthetic or mixed (wool or fleece turtleneck sweater) fabrics, that dry quickly, are preferable.
- The third layer should protect you against wind and moisture. Choose a jacket, long enough, 100% waterproof, preferably with hood.

Some hotels and inns offer laundry services for a variable sum of money. It is sometimes possible to use laundry services at homestay (when there is running water) for a fee.

Visa

You need a tourist visa to travel to Russia. It can be issued for a maximum period of 30 days. Your passport has to be valid for at least six months after the expiry date of your visa and to have at least two blank pages.

BaikalNature offers visa support and has created "BaikalNature letter of invitation" package. If you buy a BaikalNature tour, this package is absolutely free; when you buy any other BaikalNature service, you will have to pay for this package.

For questions regarding obtaining an electronic visa, please contact your tour manager.

Money

The Russian currency is ruble. The cost of travel and other services is always fixed in rubles. Please note that cards from foreign banks do not work in Russia at the moment. Tourists can obtain a bank card from a Russian bank in advance or travel with cash. If you have euros or dollars with you, exchange offices will allow you to change them easily in the cities. It is also worth noting that the exchange rate at airports

So you have no obligation to leave anything. Anyway, thank you for your tips, left at your discretion in envelopes.
