

4 Days-long Horseback Ride In Taiga — Detailed description

Trip Length: Group: 3-10 Departure: Fixed

Trip overview

Here is a true dive into unspoiled nature of Lake Baikal! Exciting itinerary off the beaten trail and complete autonomy will allow you to admire various landscapes - impenetrable taiga, majestic cliffs and the mirror of the Baikal waters. You will discover Kadilnaya valley where in days gone by they had the minerals processing for soda production, Skriper cape with its breathtaking view of the lake and a scenic rock called the "devil's bridge".

This tour is intended for experienced riders knowing how to walk and trot on horseback. Your participation will be needed to curry, saddle and unsaddle horses with the help of your Russian guide. You can also participate in feeding horses.
