

Kayaking & trekking on the Russian Arctic with Pavel Ageychenko — Detailed description

Trip Length: 7 Group: 3-6 Departure: Fixed Period: December - January

Trip overview

We get burned up with a great idea to combine a visit to the two largest massifs of the Kola Peninsula - Khibiny and Lovozero. The key to our solution became Lake Umbozero, translated from the Sami language as a closed lake or surrounded by mountains. On both sides of the lake, there are immense mountain ranges of incredible beauty, and their heart is the picturesque Umbozero Lake. So, we have a special plan for you!

What about crossing the deepest lake of the Kola Peninsula from north to south by kayaks. It's a perfect spot for kayaking, as it's surrounded by breath-taking mountains and lake scenery. On the west side, you can see the spectacular Lovozero massif with its tiny bays and pebble beaches, on the east side, we admire the oldest mountains Khibiny. Apart kayaking, we offer exciting trekking to some unique sights and place of power.

We will look into the secluded corners of the mountain ranges and follow along the absolutely wild paths of the Kola Peninsula. The entire route is far from civilization: just you and the wilderness. And the combination of the water-hiking route is ideal for outdoor holiday!

In summer 2021 the trip will be guided by Pavel Ageychenko, the founder of BaikalNature, who will pass on to you his virus of the passion for the great outdoors of Russia!

Visa

You need a tourist visa to travel to Russia. It can be issued for a maximum period of 30 days. Your passport has to be valid for at least six months after the expiry date of your visa and to have at least two blank pages.

BaikalNature offers visa support and has created "BaikalNature letter of invitation" package. If you buy a BaikalNature tour, this package is absolutely free; when you buy any other BaikalNature service, you will have to pay for this package.

For questions regarding obtaining an electronic visa, please contact your tour manager.

Money

The Russian currency is ruble. The cost of travel and other services is always fixed in rubles. Please note that cards from foreign banks do not work in Russia at the moment. Tourists can obtain a bank card from a Russian bank in advance or travel with cash. If you have euros or dollars with you, exchange offices will allow you to change them easily in the cities. It is also worth noting that the exchange rate at airports is usually not the most favorable. It is better to exchange in big cities (you can check the current exchange rate online). Important! Only new banknotes without defects or any traces are accepted for exchange.

Tipping

All persons who compose the BaikalNature travel team (guides, drivers, cooks, etc.) are paid a decent wage for their services and do not expect any tips from you. So you have no obligation to leave anything. If you really want to express your satisfaction by leaving a gratuity, and if it is in foreign currency, be aware that torn or glued coins and banknotes cannot be exchanged. Anyway, thank you for your tips, left at your discretion in envelopes.

You need to get a health examination before a great trip. Consult your doctor. Get a dental checkup. If you have health problems that could worsen during the trip, make sure you have taken all your medications with you.
